Welcome to moreytown

From WikiFur, the hairy encyclopedia. Welcome to Moreytown is a text-based adventure game available on iOS, Android, Steam and web by S. Andrew Swann, and is set in the world of its Moreau series. It happens in a ghetto town somewhere in the United States in the late 21st century. It presents a universe in which human-animal hybrids (Moreaus or Moreys) - an effect of genetic engineering for past war efforts - and humans (Roses) do not like each other, albeit with exceptions. The player can choose the character name, race and even breeding place - the latter limited in case of certain subspecies. Andrew Swann and promoted by Choice of Games. The story takes place in a fictional city located somewhere in the United States, near the end of the 21st century after a global war (presumably World War 3) ended for a few decades. This neglected slum, which is a Moreytown (a satire on Chinatown?), is populated by genetically modified, knowable and anthropomorphic non-human animals called moreau(s) (after Dr. Moreau's classic science fiction novel Entitled Doctor Moreau's Island), or morey(s) in slang. The moreaus were created and used by humans from different nations to fight the aforementioned global war for them. The moreaus, numbering millions, suffered abuse sandands in laboratories and battlefields around the world. Most migrated to the United States from all other parts of the world as refugees because it was the first nation in the world to give, and still gives, moreaus rights and protection in addition to prohibiting the practice of genetic engineering of more knowable non-human animals even before the end of the global war. However, as human beings and male-dominated societies are generally prejudiced against these non-humans, the moreaus all gathered and settled in the many slums or ghettos across the nation, separated and with few interactions with humanity. Gameplay: In this interactive fiction, the player plays as a moreau who lives in a Moreytown somewhere in the United States. There are many species to choose from, but usually it is all mammal species that can be categorized into four classes: rodents, canines, felines and ursines. The player can also choose their gender as well as their sexual preference (or lack thereof). (Note that regardless of the player's sexual preference, this will not prevent some characters that are not in the player's sexual interest from trying to flirt with the player if the player manages to make them like the player enough. Similarly, choosing to be asexual will not prevent these characters from trying to flirt with the player as well if they like the player enough. And all this will not prevent the player from choosing to flirt back if the player wants to.) Life in Moreytown has never been easy. But after the player lost his apartment to a fire, things get more and more interesting. Mostly dangerously. It is up to the player to try to stay alive in all trials and maybe return to living a normal life again, or perhaps gain prominence in their city/slum using intelligence and skills. The player can choose to fight the police force or work with them to end a dangerous cult. Or maybe work with a local gang or take the gang to end that dangerous cult. Or even take over the cult and run it as their new leader. Whatever choices the player makes, the player can influence the of the immediate future of the human-moreau relationship, whether for better or for worse. Characters: ♣ The protagonist (i.e. the player): A moreau who lives in a crowded and gang-filled apartment building called Essex Arms. Live a hard and uninteresting life in Moreytown until the Essex Guns rise in a fire. Supporting characters: • Kris Westbrook: A human reporter as well as journalist who appears to be pro-moreau. Be it a man or a woman, depending on the player's sexual preference (and always the opposite sex to the player if the player chooses to be pansexual or asexual). A potential boyfriend/girlfriend or lover. • David Turay: A male cheetah of Central African origin who runs a charity at the East Side Unity Centre. Kind and generous. Your biggest dream is to unite humans and moreaus and make the world a better place for everyone. A potential boyfriend or lover, regardless of the player's sex and sexual preference (or lack thereof). • Detective Leonard Toomy: A human detective investigating crimes and gang activity in Moreytown's player, who happened to be part of their precincts. He's very influential within the police forces. The player can choose to be your ally, or be your enemy. The Running Dogs: A gang of violent brunettes residing in Moreytown from the player who declare the city/slum as their territory. They see the Damned Saints as their rival gang that is instilling their territory. • Lucy Zhukov: A large and domineering wolf moreau of Russian origin. She's the gang leader or Alpha of the Running Dogs. At one point, she has her gang kidnapped the player and demands that the player work as her spy by infiltrating her rival gang, the DamnSaints. If she likes the player enough, she will try to flirt and have sex with the player, regardless of the player's sex and sexual preference (or lack thereof). If she doesn't like the player, she will hurt kris or David (depending on who is closest to the player) before deciding to eliminate the player if the player disobeys their demand. • Tiny: A very large male bear moreau. A member of the Dogs Running gang. • Mary: A crazy fox moreau. A member of the Dogs Running gang. • Sergei: A male wolf moreau. A member of the Dogs Running gang. The Damned Saints: Another local gang in the player's Moreytown. Originally a street gang similar to Running Dogs, but has since turned into a cult that harbors strong hatred for humanity. Always looking for more converts. Followers are drug dealers as well as drug users who create and name spirit, and revere (to the point of worshipping) their leader whom they call the Enlightened. • Francesca: A delirious brunette bunny of Peruvian origin. A cultured member of the Damn Saints gang. She is responsible for the essex arms fire and also for destroying the East Side Unit Centre with a bomb where she is killed. The Trio of Mice: A trio of nameless, nameless, rat moreaus. They are cult members of the Cursed Saints gang who are trying to convert more and more and more more brunettes into their peaceful preaching cult. The three of them are always seen together. • The Illuminated: An unnamed male mixed moreau feline. Notable for its solid white skin and pale blue eyes. He is the leader of the Damned Saints gang who appears to be manipulating and exploiting his gang members/cult followers to advance his anti-human agenda. • Slug: An obese male capybara moreau. A member of the Damn Saints gang. • Fang: A female wolf writhing moreau of Afghan origin. A member of the Damn Saints gang. • A canine guard: an unnamed male moreau dog of unspecified breed of unknown Asian origin. A member of the Gang of the Damned Saints who works as a guard near the entrance of the site of the Enlightenment Meeting of the Cursed Saints. The more the player stands out as a character, the more easily he recognizes the more as what is (more or less) responsible for Francesca's death, and he will assault the player for it. Other characters: • Mr. Francis: A human man who works as a manager of a grocery store called Naturefoods in Moreytown's player, where the player was employed. He informs the player that the player is fired from work shortly after the player has lost his home to the apartment fire. • Police officers: Also called police officers. They are all human and they tend to suspect all the moreaus they encounter. They appear during the Essex Arms fire, the explosion of the East Side Unity Center and the attack on the Enlightenment Meeting of the Condemned Saints, and work as a security force at David Turay's Rally for Peace. Personal review: I absolutely love this short interactive novel. The story is well written, the characters are well developed, and the main protagonist is very relatable. Despite the tension and dangers in most of the story, there are funny elements as well as some unexpectedly hilarious moments (depending on the choices you make), especially where the gang/cult of the Damned Saints is involved. It has a wide range of options for the player to choose from, which all lead to many different results and finals. For me, it's one of the best games of choice your own adventure I've ever played. It has some bugs and typos, but was only released earlier this month, and bugs/typos are common in newly released interactive fictions. But I believe this game will be improved with fixes and overtime updates like all other Choice of Games games. I played the first chapters for free and decided that I like it, and Paid 2.99USD (it was for sale) to play the remaining chapters, and I say I do not regret it. It's totally worth the few dollars. Overall, it's a very fun interactive fiction with high replay value. I highly recommend it. I suggest at least trying the free chapters and decide for yourself if you like. It is available on STEAM, Apple App Store, Google Play Store, Store, Amazon Appstore. Edit: The last update fixed most typos and typos. Errors.
